transfer freely to the school of his choice. Shipley said this could result in the closing of some border-line high schools if they lost students.

"This gives the people a choice," Shipley said. "The boys are kind of hesitant about legislating any schools out. The free transfer law would let them out if they wanted to go."

Prevent Padding

Shipley's committee also approved a bill making county superintendents responsible for checking attendance reports. Shipley said this would help prevent record padding as occurred in some schools last year.

Bullard led arguments against the school consolidation proposal.

Rep. Maurice L. Willis, Altus, said the house should consider the economic loss to communities which would lose their schools.

In case the captions don't show up with these pictures--The school is about all there is at Hoene, where Great Grandmother Ella Connor Mitchem Fitch died in 1926. The scene with mountain is the view SE from Hoene. The cemetery shots are at the Trinidad Masonic Cemetery, where Ella is buried, without a marker. The sexton showed me where she is buried and I took a picture toward the west from the spot (there is a tree straight ahead) and toward the north (my car is straight ahead) in case anyone wants to find the spot again. Of course, my car won't be there and who knows whether the tree will be. Best wait a couple of months until the stone is set.

HUERFANO COUNTY WOOL GROWERS GET $100,000 FOR ONE WEEK'S SHIPMENTS. BIGGEST CROP OF MANY YEARS

Walsenburg, July 19 —Walsenburg and Huerfano county is richer by $100,000 this week by reason of the large shipments of wool that are now being loaded here and shipped to eastern markets. Six carloads are about ready to leave and another consignment will go forward within a short time.

The wool crop this year is outstanding from several standpoints. The quality of the wool, in many cases, shows a big improvement this year. Wool, like many other commodities, is graded and classified according to quality, and the quality of the clip, in a great measure, depends upon the breeding methods used. It is particularly noticeable that those sheepmen who use care in breeding not only clip more wool from each animal but get a better price for their wool.

Delfino Salazar, former state representative, banker, stockman and merchant of San Luis, representing the Boston firm of Hallowell, Jones & Donnell, is said to have purchased the greater portion of the wool here. William Bryan, local buyer for Krille-Nichols, also was another prominent buyer.

Mr. Salazar spoke very highly of the improvement in the wool grown in Huerfano county this year and stated that if sheepmen continued to improve their animals, Huerfano county wool would be sought for in the markets of Wyoming, Idaho and Utah.

"The reason for the big improvement," said Mr. Salazar, "is that your sheepmen are buying better bucks for breeding purposes. Galbratch brothers of Monte Vista have sold many of their Corridale bucks in this community and the breeding of the Corridale with the Ramboulit ewes has been most successful."

J. G. Archuleta of Redwing, county commisisoner and prominent sheepman, received 30 cents per pound for his wool this year. This price is above the average and constituted thetop price here. The buyer stated that the shrinkage would be but 61 per cent, while the average for Colorado is around 68 per cent. Mr. Archuleta breeds Ramboulett ewes with Corridale bucks. He said, also, that he owes his success this year to using good bucks.

J. B. Archuleta of Apache, a brother of J. G. Archuleta, is another sheepmen who sold a fine clip of wool this season. He uses the same method of breeding as his brother. Corn and alfalfa also have played an important part in producing his excellent wool crop.

E. E. Harrison, well known rancher living west of here, got an average of better than ten pounds of wool from each animal sheared. That is significant when compared with seven pounds, the average clip for the county. Mr. Harrison is new in the sheep business. Less than two years ago he bought a herd and has improved it to such an extent that he toped the production per animal in the county this season. Mr. Harrison's experiment is an example that other sheepmen may follow with profit. Here is a case where better breeding has reaped much reward. Last fall he purchased the best buck in possession of the Perma Land company, paying $35 for it. He invites sheepment to come to his ranch to see the lambs that were sired from this animal.

The clip this season will average between 250,000 and 300,000 pounds.

Dear Mary –

I have been doing some genealogy for my Father in law, Fred Dea Jackson. Fred is the grandson of Beatrice and Faye Mitchem, and the great grandson of John W Mitchem, son of Ella and Wm H.

Beatrice died from Pneumonia ,at a very young 20 years of age, shortly after her 2nd child, Jack W was born. Sometime after that, Fred Mellor married Bea's sister Faye, who raised her sister's two children, Dorthea Dean and Jack W Mellor.

For many years, Faye told stories to her grandchildren, stating that she was Cherokee. And somewhere back about 1800, and Indian (chief, of course) had married her white great, great grandmother. This story was passed down through the generations, and when I began this journey, it was my intention to validate this story, one way or another.

To date, I have been unable to find any proof of this, although Faye insisted she was on the Dawes rolls, I find no mention of any Mitchem on the rolls, or in the applications for the rolls.

Do you by any chance, know anything about this story?

Hi Cathy,
Not one Indian chief in the Mitchem family.......John Worthington Mitchem married Lulu McCracken/McCrackin about 1890 in Missouri. They had the following issue:

Mildred May "Millie" married #1 Milo Haskell Overlees and # 2 Mr. Offutt
William H. married Pearl Myrtle Gossett
Beatrice Oral married Fred B. Mellor
John R. married #1 Roxie McCoy and #2 Ruby Rutledge
Faye Jewel married Fred B. Mellor
James Edwin married #1 Bessie Courtney and #2 Lorraine Bawl Taylor

I visited with James Edwin in the late 1970's and saw the family Bible that belonged to David and Sarah Wilson McCracken and passed on to John and Lulu McCracken Mitchem. I tried to get James to let me borrow the Bible and make copies of the family pages. He would not allow me to borrow the Bible. I have no idea what happened to the Bible after James died in 1982. He had no children and his only survivor was Helen Chaney of Amarillo, TX, a niece.

If there is an Indian connection in this family, it surely must come from Lulu's parents, David and Sarah Wilson McCracken. David was born in Virginia about 1812 and Sarah was born in North Carolina about 1838-39. Either of those two were in a good location to have had Indian ties. The Mitchem/Meachem family came from England in the 1600s to probably, NY to MA to CT to VA to OH to Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma.

The following from a Bartlesville newspaper (either the Examiner or Enterprise)

7 Jan 1919
BRINGS HOME MOTHERLESS BABE
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Overlees of 418 Dewey Avenue, have returned from Henryetta, bringing with them the two-week-old babe of Mrs. Overlee's sister, Mrs. Fred Mellor, she having died as the result of an attack of influenza.

I do have a picture of Lulu McCracken Mitchem. She certainly might have been Indian with such dark hair and complextion, but have not really done any research on the McCracken/Wilson family since they were not a direct line. Just know they lived in Missouri and Kansas. Some of Sarah Wilson McCracken's Wilson family moved to OK.

This line of the Mitchem family had few descendents. The following:
Mildred had one daughter, Helen
William had no children
Beatrice had Dorothy and Jack
John R. had John Roy
Faye Jewel had no children
James Edwin had no children
This information came from James Edwin when we visited in the 1970's.

Wish we did have a Cherokee or two in the Mitchem family........but no such luck.

>Hi Mary,
>Yes I'm researching my husbands family. James Mitchem came from Jackson Co., or Pike Co., OH.
I would love to make the last connection in his family line. I have been working on this line since 1968. My husbands family were not very helpful in helping me find information. Once I uncovered the skeleton and informed them they just said oh! I thought I told you already. All they were trying to cover up was a marriage from John Wesley Mitchem's daughter Cora Belle Mitchem to John's his half brother Irvin Ellis Mitchem. James Mitchem who married first Rebecca Butcher, a widow with two children in OH. They moved to Bethany, Harrison Co. MO. This is where James Mitchem died in 1881.
I have many records of James R. Mitchem in Jackson Co., OH at first I thought that this was his line.
Please if you could help I would appreciate it. I do have the census records of all Mitchems/Meachams in OH and MO. I have marriage records for all Meachams/ Mitchems in OH and MO.
I'm sure that we connect.
I'm sorry that I can't send more information at this time. I'm at work and all my information is at home. Tell what information you would like and I will send it to you. I have some of my information on Family Tree Maker.

Presbyterian Church Notes

Sunday School	10:00
Church Hour	11:00
Junior League	7:15

Sunday morning the Rev. Barnes, of Luray, Kansas, will be with us for the morning worship. Mr. Barnes has been called to Hill City as a possible candidate for the joint pastorate of Hoxie and Hill City. He has been spending the week in Hill City making acquaintances and becoming familiar with the work. He will also be present for the Junior League Sunday evening.

An alcohol education program has been planned for the Sunday School hour. Send your boy or girl to Sunday school somewhere. They need the religious training they cannot get outside the church.

Don't forget the Union Services at the Christian Church this evening.

OBITUARY

James Butcher

James Butcher, son of Adam and Elizabeth Butcher, was born in Jackson county, Ohio, on March 3rd, 1852, and departed this life at his home near Hill City on October 15, 1938, at the age of eighty-six years, seven months and twelve days. At an early age he moved with his parents to Missouri, where he was married to Electa M. Poynter, March 26, 1871. To this union were born six children, Walter W. Butcher of LaJunta Colo., Rosetta Wilkin of Brewster, Kansas, who preceded him in death, December 15, 1929; Jesse E. Butcher of Bellaire Kansas; Josie Fix of Kansas City; James Butcher Jr., of Akron, Ohio; and Edgar Butcher, who died in infancy. On February 16, 1894 his wife, Electa, passed away. In 1898 he moved to Mitchell county, Kansas, and was married to Sarah E. Smith of Beloit, Kansas, December 30, 1900. To this union were born three children; Richard P. and Fay P. Butcher of Hill City and Gaylon G. Butcher of Bellaire, Kansas. He moved to Graham county in the spring of 1908, and established his home southwest of Hill City in 1911. He was a member of the Methodist Church and remained in that faith to the end. Mr. Butcher has been in ill health for several years, but became worse in August of this year. He leaves to mourn their loss, besides his immediate family; one sister, Mrs. Nannie McNamee, of Norman, Oklahoma; six grandchildren and five great grandchildren, many other relatives, friends and neighbors. Funeral services, conducted by R. A. Collins and Rev. Milner, were held in the Community church at Hill City, on Monday afternoon, October 17, and the body was laid to rest in the Hill City cemetery.

Hi Lea,
Glad to share my Meacham/Mitchem material. It will take a bit to get it copied, as I do not have my 35+ years of family research on the computer. Also, for some reason, I cannot download successfully on my computer so must ask for Xerox copies from everyone.
My line is as follows:
Elijah D. Meacham m Sarah
William Meacham/Mitchem m Catherine Wirt on 26 Jul 1827, Montgomery Co. VA
William Harrison Mitchem m Ella Ann Conner on 6 Oct 1867, Fayette Co. OH
Orrin Ometa Mitchem m Ella Adaline Hendricks on 21 Apr 1888, Labette Co. KS
Mabel Inez Mitchem m Raymond Henry Metzinger, on 25 May 1927, Allen Co. KS
Mary Ruth Metzinger m Richard Dean Nunneley on 29 Aug 1952, Tulsa Co. OK
Your James Russell Mitchem who married #1Rebecca Butcher Blake and #2 Amanda J. Ellis is a brother to my William Harrison Mitchem.
I have no idea what happened to their father, William Meacham/Mitchem. Their mother, Catherine Wirt Mitchem remarried in 1846 to Nelson Osborn and in 1854 to Nathaniel Hill. Catherine died on 23 Jan 1871 in Harrison Co. MO and is buried at Pleasant Ridge Cemetery in Harrison Co.
Will close for now and get the Mitchem material copied as soon as possible.

Subject: Re: Miles family

To: meach@bright.net

Hope the following helps you understand the confused Miles family of Montgomery Co. VA.....

Elijah Meacham and Sarah Unknown had:
Mary Meacham who married William Wirt, their daughter,
Mary Wirt, Jr. married Samuel Branch Miles

Children of Mary Wirt, Jr. and Samuel Branch Miles:
John W. Miles, 1848-bef 1880 married Barbara Ellen Otey
James H. Miles, 1850-?? married Octavia A. Bowles
Sarah Catherine Miles, 1852-bef 1895 married William Wade Wirt
Martha J. Miles, 1853-1854
Mary F. Miles, 1855-1914 married William Meadows Spradlin
Thomas Gordon Miles, 1856-?? married Oney C. Spradlin
SAMUEL BRANCH MILES, JR., 12 Oct 1859 - 14 Nov 1902, married Ollie Linkous (dau of Isaac and Martha J. Hodge Linkous). Samuel died in Bluefield, Mercer Co. WVA.

Mary Wirt Miles, wife of Samuel Branch Miles died 29 Jan 1863.

Samuel Branch Miles married # 2 Martha A. Williams and had:
Bracket Miles, born 1864......this is unproven to me, but a Bracket does show up in later census years with this birthdate Samuel and Martha married on 2 Jul 1863, location unknown.

Samuel Branch Miles married # 3 Sarah A. M. L. Hall Miles (Sarah had first married the brother of Samuel Branch Miles, Asa Taylor Miles (Sarah and Asa married 22 Nov 1860 in Montgomery Co.). Asa Taylor Miles died in the Civil War on 24 Apr 1865 in Petersburg, VA.
Asa and Sarah Miles had one son, Thomas Miles, b about 1861. After the death of Asa, Sarah moved in with her brother-in-law, per all census records from 1870 forward. She continued to have children and all Miles researchers list those children as belonging to Samuel Branch Miles and Sarah A. M. L Hall Miles. Census records from 1870 forward list the children:

Elijah D. Miles, born 14 Jun 1867 married Mary F. Pannill and Hannah Carr

Nancy Elizabeth Miles, born 30 Dec 1869 married Thomas Joshua Spradlin

JOSEPH JACKSON MILES, 17 Mar 1872 - 13 May 1952 married 3 Dec 1899 to Virginia Alice "Jennie" Wirt, (dau of Andrew Wirt and Ann Spradlin). Jennie born 16 Dec 1880 and died 2 Jul 1935.
NOTE: Gravestones at Winfrey Cemetery show the following:
Joseph J. Miles
17 Mar 1872 - 13 May 1952
Jenny L. Miles
29 Feb 1881 - 2 Jul 1925 (which birthdate is correct ???)

Frank Edward "Peyton" Miles, 15 May 1874 - 21 Apr 1936

Asa Taylor "Moulton" Miles, 16 Nov 1876 - 29 Apr 1853 married Sarah C. Wirt (dau of Andrew Wirt and Ann Spradlin)

Hamilton G. Miles, 12 Aug 1879 - 1938, married Fannie A. Cox

Margaret J. "Maggie" Miles, 29 Sep 1883 - ca 1910 married Arthur "Oscar" Davis Spradlin

Samuel Branch Miles and Sarah A. M. L. Hall Miles married 30 Sep 1883, only after their last child, Maggie was born.

As you can see, JOSEPH J. MILES (father of Claude J. Miles, born 26 Apr 1909, died 25 Jun 2006 in Christianburg) could not have been a son of SAMUEL BRANCH MILES, JR., for there was only 13 years difference between their ages

All of the records, and I have many, prove that the Miles currently living in or near Christianburg, Montgomery Co. VA in no way descend from the Elijah Meachem family. I corresponded with Mr. Freddie Spradlin several years ago concerning the Miles family. He had just taken his father back to Montgomery Co. for a visit (I think from CA). Freddie said he had never heard of the Meachams. And, know he has done Miles research for years.

Will send more later,

On 6-4-2001:

I talked to Henry A. Miles, 1035 Craig Mt. Rd.,
Christiansburg, VA.

1- His father told him that Samuel B. Miles, wife, and 1 child was buried in Meacham/Miles Cemetery.

2- He took us to see Claude J. Miles, 1180 Radford St NW, Christiansburg, VA. Claude was born in 1909. He told us that the Meacham/Miles Cemetery was located on Grave Yard Hill. He told us that buried there were:

Samuel B. Miles(his grandfather)[only stone]
Payton Miles(Samuel's son)
Elijah D. Meacham, & wives Sara and Fanny

3- He told us hill where he lives called "Lookout Hill"-- was used as hangout for raising hell, shooting cans & signs, and what not. Could see Sheriff coming from a long was away.

[Note- Henry lives on Lookout Hill and Robin and Faye Miles(1037 Craig Mt. Rd.) live in low area next to hill. Both are in front of Meacham/Miles Property along Craig Mt. Rd.].

Plaintiff says that he is the duly appointed, qualified and acting administrator of the estate of Elijah Mitchem, deceased; that the said Elijah Mitchem died intestate on the 19th. day of November, 1912, and that he was in his lifetime seized of an estate in fee simple and in possession thereof of the following described real estate, situate in the County of Fayette and State of Ohio, and in the Village of New Holland in said County, which said real estate is bounded and described as follows, to wit:

> Beginning at a stone in the center of the New Holland and and Washington Turnpike corner to John Stookey's land formerly owned by John and Margaret Archy; thence with said Turnpike N. 48 deg. E. 4.08 poles to a stake; thence N. 1 1/4 deg. W. 224.72 feet to a stake corner to the G. W. Hart Tract; thence with the line of said Hart's tract S. 82 1/2 deg. That the said defendant, Joseph W. Jester, is the owner and holder of a mortgage lien upon the said premises, executed by the said Elijah Mitchem, deceased,,in his lifetime, dated September 17th., 1912, due one year after date, and which said mortgage is recorded in Vol.14 at page 128 of the Mortgage Records of Fayette County, Ohio, and that the amount due on said mortgage indebtedness is unknown to this plaintiff.

Plaintiff further says that there is not sufficient personal property to pay said mortgage lien and other indebtedness of the said estate, and that it is necessary to sell said real estate to pay the debts of the said decedent.

NOTE 1.—This blank will be used for both enlistments and re-enlistments—enlistment of veterans, &c., &c., in the volunteer service. They will be made out in duplicate in all cases—one to accompany the recruiting return of the superintendent (not the recruiting officer) to the Adjutant General, and one to accompany the accounts of the officer who pays bounty, &c. The Regiment and Company in which the soldier last served should be given on the back.

NOTE 2.—An enlistment holds to service. A muster-in must, in all cases, precede payment of pay, bounty, pension, &c. A muster-in roll must, in all cases, be filed in the Adjutant General's Office as evidence of muster-in. The mustering officer, commissary, or assistant commissary of musters, as the case may be, will countersign both enlistments as having mustered the soldier into the service of the United States before either of them is given to the disbursing officer.

In case the captions don't show up with these pictures--The school is about all there is at Hoene, where Great Grandmother Ella Connor Mitchem Fitch died in 1926. The scene with mountain is the view SE from Hoene. The cemetery shots are at the Trinidad Masonic Cemetery, where Ella is buried, without a marker. The sexton showed me where she is buried and I took a picture toward the west from the spot (there is a tree straight ahead) and toward the north (my car is straight ahead) in case anyone wants to find the spot again. Of course, my car won't be there and who knows whether the tree will be. Best wait a couple of months until the stone is set.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY NOTICE

Democratic voters of Precinct 48, Ward three, city of Trinidad are requested to meet at 7:30 Tuesday, July 20, at Castle hall for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the county Democratic assembly to be held July 24 at the court house and to nominate candidates for precinct committeeman and

HUERFANO COUNTY WOOL GROWERS GET $100,000 FOR ONE WEEK'S SHIPMENTS. BIGGEST CROP OF MANY YEARS

Walsenburg, July 19 —Walsenburg and Huerfano county is richer by $100,000 this week by reason of the large shipments of wool that are now being loaded here and shipped to eastern markets. Six carloads are about ready to leave and another consignment will go forward within a short time.

The wool crop this year is outstanding from several standpoints. The quality of the wool in many cases shows a big improvement this year. Wool, like many other commodities, is graded and classified according to quality, and the quality of the clip, in a great measure, depends upon the breeding methods used. It is particularly noticeable that those sheepmen who use care in breeding not only clip more wool from each animal but get a better price for their wool.

Delfino Salazar, former state representative, banker, stockman and merchant of San Luis, representing The Boston firm of Hallowell, Jones & Donnell, is said to have purchased the greater portion of the wool here. William Bryan, local buyer for Krille-Nichols, also was another prominent buyer.

Mr. Salazar spoke very highly of the improvement in the wool grown in Huerfano county this year and stated that if sheepmen continued to improve their animals, Huerfano county wool would be sought for in the markets of Wyoming, Idaho and Utah.

"The reason for the big improvement," said Mr. Salazar, "is that your sheepmen are buying better bucks for breeding purposes. Galbratch brothers of Monte Vista have sold many of their Corridale bucks in this community and the breeding of the Corridale with the Ramboult ewes has been most successful."

J. G. Archuleta of Redwing, county commisisoner and prominent sheepman received 30 cents per pound for his wool this year. This price is above the average and constituted thetop price here. The buyer stated that the shrinkage would be but 61 per cent, while the average for Colorado is around 68 per cent. Mr. Archuleta breeds Ramboulett ewes with Corridale bucks. He said, also, that he owes his success this year to using good bucks.

J. B. Archuleta of Apache, a brother of J. G. Archuleta, is another sheepmen who sold a fine clip of wool this season. He uses the same method of breeding as his brother. Corn and alfalfa also have played an important part in producing his excellent wool crop.

E. E. Harrison, well known rancher living west of here, got an average of better than ten pounds of wool from each animal sheared. That is significant when compared with seven pounds, the average clip for the county. Mr. Harrison is new in the sheep business. Less than two years ago he bought a herd and has improved it to such an extent that he toped the production per animal in the county this season. Mr. Harrison's experiment is an example that other sheepmen may follow with profit. Here is a case where better breeding has reaped much reward. Last fall he purchased the best buck in possession of the Perma Land company, paying $35 for it. He invites sheepment to come to his ranch to see the lambs that were sired from this animal.

The clip this season will average between 250,000 and 300,000 pounds.

the officer, however, he stopped. Howe called to him at the same time secreting his official badge, and he finally decoyed Brooks nearly to him under the impression that he was a friend. As soon as Brooks got near enough to recognize him he turned and ran with Howe in pursuit, but after a 100 yard chase along a hedge fence, Officers Anderson and Barrowman sprang out from the hedge, where they had secreted themselves and captured him. The amusing part of it was the two latter officers knew nothing of Howe's presence in the vicinity until they seen him sprinting along in the rear of Brooks. The prisoner was brought back to the city, and put up $15 for his appearance for trial, the time for which had at last accounts not been set yet.

How He "Conned" The Watches.

B. F. Jefferd, of Fayetteville, Arkansas, left last night with the all around crook arrested here under the name of E. L. Merchant, wanted in Fayetteville for stealing three gold watches, and Mr. Jefferd is the manager of the jewelery establishment from which they were taken. He first made his appearance in the store about three days before the theft and asked for an initial ring, but Mr. Jefferds did not have the ring with the initial Merchant wanted and asked Jefferds to order one for him. Jefferd agreed to do this and told him when to come after it. When he came to the store asked to see the ladies gold watches he appeared to be very particular as to the kind and style desired and finally decided upon three and requested the privilege of carrying them to the hotel where he would be assisted in selecting one. This request was granted him by Mr. Jefferd and the next he knew Merchant was gone and with him went the watches or in plain words he had simply "conned" Jefferds out of the time pieces. Circulars giving a description of Merchant were sent out to the principal towns and cities north, south, east and west and as a result the thief was picked up here. In Fayetteville he went by the name of Wm. Howard.

The food which is to be sent to Cuba for the reconcentrados will be distributed by army officers, and by the Red Cross society, under the direction of Miss Clara Barton. No interference by the Spanish authorities will be allowed by the officers of this government. Commissary General Egan has established a regular ration for the Cuban people.

Cuban Forces Rapidly Disbanding.

Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 21.—The Cuban forces are rapidly disbanding upon request of Gen. Lawton, and as fast as they lay down their arms they return to their homes and resume their former occupations. More freedom to the Cubans is being allowed, and this policy has caused general satisfaction. Numbers of the insurgents unarmed have been allowed to visit their families in this city, and Cuban officers now mingle amicably with the Spaniards in the streets. The tobacco factories have resumed operations, and are filled with workers, who, until a few days ago, were armed insurgents. The exodus of both American and Spanish troops continues.

LETTER FROM ALGER

The Secretary of War Tells of the Work of His Department.

THE SICKNESS AMONG VOLUNTEERS.

Many Commanding Officers Responsible for Much of It—What the Surgeon General, Commissary General and Quartermaster General Have Done.

New York, Aug. 23.—Chauncey M. Depew has received the following letter from the secretary of war and has consented to its publication. It was written in reply to a request for information:

My Dear Mr. Depew: The great pressure of business has up to now prevented me from sending to you the statement you were kind enough to ask for, as to what had been accomplished in the way of outfitting the army for the field, the conduct of campaign, etc. Also, the chiefs of divisions have been too much driven with work to compile the data required. One not in the midst of the work can hardly realize what an undertaking it is to call 125,000 men into the field at one time, coming from all the states, and to have them mustered and gathered in camps on so short notice, and this, too, when we had scarcely any camp outfit for their accommodation, all having to be provided for by the war department.

As you know, when the war was declared there was no equipment whatever for the volunteers in store. This was successfully accomplished, with very few accidents, as a matter of record. Subsequent calls, including the regular army (which numbered about 27,000 men when war was declared), made a total of 268,500 men. To accomplish all in so short a time has been a great work.

Thus from the homes of 216,000 volunteers has been constant and great anxiety as to what might happen to their soldiers, and hundreds of inquiries, made by letters and telegrams, have been received every day concerning individual soldiers. The feeling on the part of these individuals that the war department is responsible for the care of their men individually has naturally aroused sympathy in case of sickness and death, and has created much sorrow.

Every effort has been made from the beginning to furnish every camp with all appliances asked for, but, of course, the commanding officers in the field are the ones who have direct charge of these men. For instance, one army corps commander has division orders and enforces them, respecting sanitary affairs, and he has to-day but a fraction over two per cent on the sick list. Others have not been successful and the consequence is that typhoid and other fevers have been bred and spread to a considerable extent. One regiment in the Chickamauga camp has a colonel who enforces sanitary rules in his regiment, obliging the men to boil all the water they drink, keeping the camp clean, and the result is that there are less than 15 sick, and the camp, too, is in as unfavorable place as any in the command. Others more favorably situated have ten times that number on the sick list. One of the regiments of the last call, not yet moved from its state, sends bitter complaints of typhoid fever.

Concerning the Santiago campaign, when the ships left Tampa they had on board three months' provisions and an abundance of hospital supplies. They had lighters to unload with at point of debarkation. These lighters were lost in severe storms on the way. As soon as we were notified of the fact, two tows of lighters were sent from Mobile and New Orleans, which were also overtaken by storms and lost. The navy supplied us with lighters and one of those was wrecked. The army disembarked, getting off a portion of its supplies and medical stores and immediately marched to the front to fight the Spaniards. The great difficulty of landing supplies subsequently was because of the wind, which sprang up every morning at ten and made a high surf, render-

MUTINY IN CAMP.

Arkansas Troops Throw Down Their Arms and Declare They Will Not Go to Cuba.

Chickamauga Park, Ga., Aug. 21.—For half an hour or more yesterday the Second Arkansas was in a state of mutiny. Many of the men threw down their arms, refused to turn out for drill and openly declared they would not go to Cuba. Augmented by the men of the Fifth Missouri, who arrived in time to cheer their friends on, there were at least 1,000 howling, shouting men beyond control in the lines of the Arkansas command. Col. Cook was sent for and the Missourians were called to their own lines by the sounding of the assembly. It speaks worlds for both men and officers of the two regiments that an hour afterward there was not even a sign of the trouble. The trouble was precipitated by the arrival of a copy of the Arkansas Democrat, containing the text of a telegram which officers of the regiment had sent to the secretary of war, asking that the regiment be selected for service abroad, and announcing its willingness to go. Members of the ranks declared the representations was false.

Negroes Warned to Leave.

Denton, Tex., Aug. 21.—Trouble is said to be brewing at Pilot Point, a town of 2,000 inhabitants, in this county, between the whites and the negroes. The trouble dates back some time, but the latest and most direct cause was the attack several days ago of a negro man on two white boys, whom he beat up badly. Indignation meetings were held by the white citizens, and placards were posted warning the negroes to leave.

News from the Third Missouri.

Thoroughfare, Va., Aug. 21.—Adjt. Gen. Bell, of Missouri, has wired the Third regiment that he is coming here next week to take sick Missouri soldiers on a special train to St. Louis, whence they will be sent home. The Third's orders to move to Middleton, Pa., were countermanded this morning. It is rumored that the camp there has been condemned and the troops ordered away.

AFFAIRS AT MANILA

Articles of Surrender Not Fully Understood at Washington.

THE TERMS OF LITTLE CONSEQUENCE

The Protocol Provides for the Cession of Manila and Leaves the Disposition of the Islands to the Peace Commissioners.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Among the war officials the terms of the capitulation of Manila, as cabled by Gen. Merritt, was a topic of discussion. No light has been thrown upon the terms by Gen. Merritt. He cabled the terms themselves, expecting probably to forward by mail the construction placed upon them by the American and Spanish officers at Manila. Unofficial advices from Manila received previous to the arival of the text of the terms indicated that the capitulation of the city included the surrender of the Philippines and that Spanish sovereignty over the entire archipelago was, temporarily at least, at an end. This view is not sustained by the conditions of the surrender as cabled by Gen. Merritt and, it may be said, it is m[illegible] view taken by the best-informed [illegible]als of the administration. While some of the war authorities last night were inclined to the opinion that the articles of capitulation, necessarily temporary and naturally somewhat elastic in their phraseology, might be construed to mean the surrender of Spanish control over the entire Philippine group, the prevalent opinion now is that they mean precisely what they say and that the surrender includes only the city of Manila and its immediate surroundings, or "suburbs," as it is expressed in the articles.

It can be said authoritatively that the president is quite satisfied with the terms as made by Gen. Merritt and Admiral Dewey. Their instructions afforded them considerable latitude for individuality of action, the president feeling confident that they would secure the best possible terms in the circumstances. That they have done so he is certain. It is pointed out that the terms of the capitulation of Manila can have but little effect upon the action of the Paris peace commission, in any event. The protocol as signed by the accredited representatives of the governments of the United States and Spain provides for the cession of the city, bay and harbor of Manila to the United States and leaves to the peace commission to determine the disposition and government of the Philippine islands. Whether, therefore, Spain is to retain her sovereignty over the island is a question to be decided by the Paris commission. The action of the commission is circumscribed by the provisions of the protocol, while the terms of the capitulation of Manila, it is suggested, can have very little more serious effect upon the commission's work than

DEATH FOR PILLAGING.

Rebels at Manila While Looting Tondo Killed by Americans—Augusti's Escape Was Understood by Dewey.

Hong Kong, Aug. 23.—Officers of the steamer China from Manila, which has arrived here, report that it was evident that the resistance of the Spaniards when Manila was attacked by the Americans was merely nominal and was made solely to maintain the honor of Spain. The officers expressed the belief that the escape of Gov. Gen. Augusti was prearranged and was well understood by Admiral Dewey. The total number of killed on the American side during the attack upon and capture of Manila was 46, and of the wounded about 100. The Spanish losses were 200 killed and 400 wounded. The fire of the Americans did practically no damage to the town or to the non-combatants. The Americans had considerable difficulty in keeping the insurgents out of the city, only admitting those who were without weapons. Five insurgents were shot while looting at Tondo.

One Life for Three.

Friendship, Ga., Aug., 22.—A negro whose name has not been learned murdered Mrs. James McGarrah and her son James with an ax. The negro next caught a negro woman, tied her to a tree in the woods and began hacking her with the same ax. She died soon after, but not before she had given a description of her assailant. The murderer was caught and promptly lynched.

Soldiers United to Steal.

San Francisco, Aug. 22.—Since the conviction of Quartermaster Young, of Kansas, for the irregular handling of government supplies, it has leaked out that a combination was formed among the non-commissioned commissary officers of the various regiments to defraud the government. Enough evidence has been secured to make trouble for several men now under arrest and under suspension.

Will All Go to Camp Meade.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 22.—All difficulties in the way of obtaining additional land at Camp Meade have been overcome and the troops of the Second army corps remaining at Camp Alger and Thoroughfare gap will be moved to the new camp below this city at the rate of a brigade a day, bringing the number of soldiers here up from 6,000 to 30,000.

Young Blaine's Scandalous Conduct.

Honolulu, Aug. 11, via San Francisco.—Capt. James G. Blaine has been the scandal of Honolulu since his arrival. His first exploit was at the Pacific club. He became intoxicated, though recently a graduate of a "cure," and fell down a long flight of stairs. Everybody supposed he was killed, but he sustained merely a few scratches.

GRAND WAR CONCERT

An Unusual Feature for the G. A. R. Encampment at Cincinnati.

ACTS OF ROWDYISM AT SAN LUIS.

Civil Authorities Report American Soldiers Worse than the Spaniards—Gen. Lee to Review His Troops—Shafter's Sanitary Report.

Cincinnati, Aug. 22.—One of the unusual features for the thirty-second national encampment G. A. R. in this city, September 5 to 10, is a war concert to be given the first three nights of the encampment week at Music hall. Three prominent local choral organizations will participate. The most powerful of these is the United Catholic choir, under the direction of Prof. Andrew Boex. This choir will be made up of 500 of the best trained voices in all the Catholic choirs of the city, and their performance will be meritorious. Alternating with this immense Catholic choir will be the Orpheus club of 150 voices under Prof. Charles Graninger, and the Cambro-American Choral society, comprising 150 trained voices, under direction of the well-known tenor, Prof. David Davis. The chorus will be supported by Weber's military band of 50 pieces. It is now settled that Commander-in-Chief Gobin, who is the commander of Camp Alger, will be here on a leave of absence during the encampment week. President McKinley and members of his cabinet and distinguished officers of the army and navy are expected for the peace jubilee.

ACTS OF RODYISM AT SAN LUIS.

Santiago de Cuba, Aug. 22.—The steam lighter Laura struck a rock near the steel pier and sank in ten feet of water. At the time of the accident she had on board 630 men of the Third Michigan regiment, who were on the way to the transport Harvard. No lives were lost, but an exciting scramble for the shore took place in which many of the men fell in the shallow water. Gen. Shafter and the sick soldiers who are under the care of physicians, will leave to-day on the transport Mexico. The civil authorities of San Luis, the western terminus of the railroad, report acts of rowdyism and theft and the insulting of women by members of the battalion of the Eighth Illinois regiment, which is stationed there. It is said that the soldiers are worse than the Spaniards. The people assert that all discipline is ignored. The chief offenders have been imprisoned.

GEN. LEE TO REVIEW HIS CORPS.

Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 22.—Gen. Lee, commanding the Seventh army corps, is making arrangements for the parade of the troops of the corps and it will probably take place on Friday of this week. The parade will be in commemoration of the signing of the protocol and declaration of peace. Invitations have been extended to President McKinley, Secretary Alger and Sheep—Receipts, 479; shipped yesterday, 1,433. The market was nominally steady.

Horses and mules—The receipts of horses and mules have been more liberal this week. The demand is increasing for southern horses 4 to 5 years old and weighing 700 to 1,000 pounds. So far the traffic has been light, but the favorable reports coming from Louisiana regarding the condition of sugar cane and the prospects for a big cotton crop all over the south indicates that there will be a strong demand for both horses and mules this fall. Prices are steady and a much better feeling prevails.

CAMP LIFE.

Discipline and [illegible] of the here and its no joke to carry 60 or 70 pounds of heavy freight. I don't believe many could do it on a forced march. Many would certainly throw half their things away before they were many miles out.

I am going down and watch the ships and the waves and the hills all these pretty things. I tell you it is grand to see them all.

CORRESPONDENTS CAUTIONED.

The colonel called a lot of newspaper correspondents among the regiment and reprimanded them for many of their illtimed criticisms—I was not among them.

We had a big time at the Mechanics Pavillion the other night. There was abont 5000 people out to see us.

August 11, 1898.

We have had brigade drill for three days. This morning we went out in heavy marching order. Three regiments constitute our brigade—the Iowa, Tennessee and Kansas, We were reviewed by Maj. Gen. Merriam and General King. Gen. Merriim said we would surely go to Manilla as soon as boats can be secured. Guess that means when they can be built.

We had a fine review though.

FEASTING ON CHICKEN.

For dinner today we had eighteen chickens, dumplings and meat, mashed potatoes, bread and coffee—the grandest meal since we have been here. The chickens accidently it is supposed strayed into camp during the night, and their appearance at dinner was a surprise.

Yesterday for breakfast we had nothing but one spoonfull of "wheatine" with bread and coffee, but no sugar.

For dinner we had a spoonful of beans and bread and coffee with a little sugar. We are two days [illegible] hind on rations and that is suppo[illegible] to be the chief cause of the accid[illegible] to the chickens. But things are coming right.

THE NEW YORK DANDIES.

The first New York is camped just west of us, and they are a lot of "prigs." They imagine they are very swell. They wear old fashioned, little soldier caps like cadets do and every one makes fun of them. They are greatly given to white kid gloves to do guard duty in. The Iowa, Tennessee, California and Kansas boys have no use for the New York cads.

ter getting nearly all of the Iowa boys in the crowd the combined procession headed for the New York camp for what purpose nobody knew but tuey were yelling "Clean out the New Yorkers." It took all the guard and a full batallion to head them off and ever since the New Yorkers have been quaking in their boots.

THE DILEMMA.

In view of the terrible revelations of the past few days in regard to Secretary of War Alger's brutality, venality, and imbecility we wonder whether the Topeka Capital, the Girard Press and the other Republican rooters and howlers of Kansas will continue to adulate him and through him glorify McKinley for their "masterful" management of the war just closed ?

Is the Capital willing to repeat what it said in its columns Sunday Aug. 14—"From start to gnish, the guiding hand the dominant personality has been that of McKinley ?"

Is the Girard Press ready to give us another column setting forth "Alger's Splendid Record ?"

We think not.

Neither of these political sycophants, will do any thing of the kind. As soon as they discover that McKinley need Alger as a scrapegoat on whose head is to be unloaded the unparalled corruption and inefficiency of the war department, they will desert Alger.

In their haste to be party flunkers these sheets and the Republican bosses of Kansas sought to magnify McKinley by ascribing to him the entire credit of the most glorious war, so far as bravery eudurance and skill are concerned in the history of the world—it was all McKinleys—all due to his "dominant personality."

It will be a sight for gods and men to note how ferociously these partizan parasites will hereafter separate McKinley from Alger and seek to prove by invincible logic that all the glory was due to McKinley. and all the infamy to Alger.

If McKinley was the "dominent personality" from "start to finish" then he is responsibile for the Algerian iniquities, and has forfeited the moral right to be commander-in-chief of the American forces, if it is Alger who is responsible, then McKinley basely abdicated his functions and should be courtmartialed for incapacity, cowardice, and deserting his post of duty in the face of the enemy,

Take either horn of the dilemma.

Sells two smelters

William Lanyon, who owns the Lanyon smelters in the this city, has sold a controlling interest in his smelters at Caney and Deering t to the American Lead Zinc and Smelting company of Boston. This is the company which owns about 300 acres of the best of nine fields in and about Joplin. A story in yesterday's Star stated that he had also sold his Pittsburg interests to this company Mr. Lanyon denies the report today stating that the disposed of his Montgomery interests only. He states that he will retain his other interests. In answer to the question why he sold his smelters Mr. Lanyon said he never turned down a good proposition.

Crossing The Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the Bar
When I put out to sea.

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot—
face to face,
When I have crost the bar

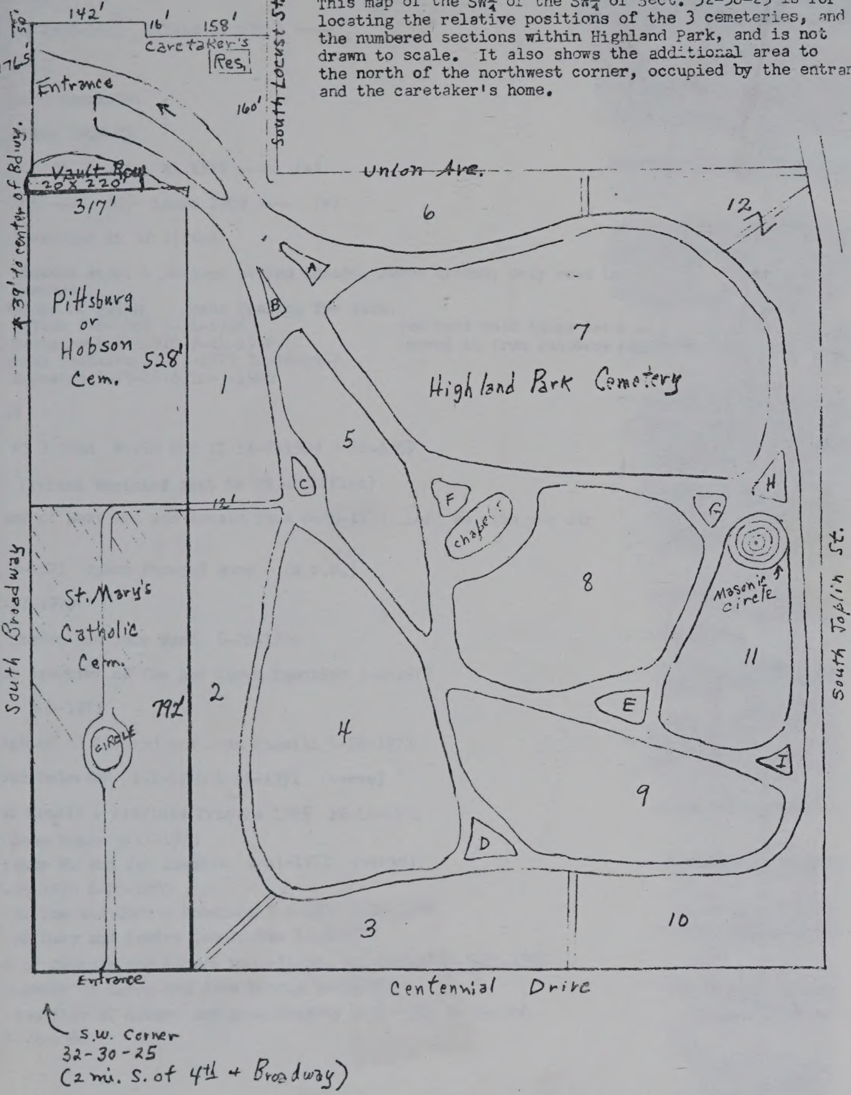
HIGHLAND PARK CEM., PITTSBURG (HOBSON) CEM., ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC CEM.

This map of the SW¼ of the SW¼ of Sect. 32-30-25 is for locating the relative positions of the 3 cemeteries, and the numbered sections within Highland Park, and is not drawn to scale. It also shows the additional area to the north of the northwest corner, occupied by the entrance and the caretaker's home.



PITTSBURG (HOBSON) CEMETERY

Located in the SW¼ of the SW¼ of Sect. 32-30-25

This is nearly 2 mi. S of the intersection of 4th Street and Broadway in Pittsburg, Kansas, on the E side of the street(S. Broadway), which is the county mile road.

This is sometimes considered to be a part of the newer Highland Park Cemetery which adjoins it on the N, see map of Highland Park Cem. for further explanation.

Upon entering the wide gateway to Highland Park Cem., a row of large vaults or mausoleums above ground may be seen to the S of this entrance area. The old Pittsburg or Hobson Cemetery begins just to the S of these vaults, and occupies an area 317 ft. E-W (including a 39 ft. set-back from the center of S. Broadway) and 528 ft. N-S. The lots are 10 ft. E-W and 20 ft. N-S. Each block of lots is 50 ft. E-W and 60 ft. N-S, containing 15 lots. There are 5 of these blocks E-W and 8 N-S, separated by 4 ft. walks, this area being surrounded by a space of 8 ft. on the N, 12 ft. on the E and S, and 39 ft. on the W. The W 220 ft. of the 8 ft. walkway along the N side later became a part of "Vault Row", see Highland Park Cem. records. The newer Highland Park Cem. adjoins it on the N and E, and St. Mary's Catholic Cem. on the S, the boundaries being hardly visible, although a driveway follows the W half of the south boundary.

Land records of CrawfordCo. show that George Hobson rec'd a land patent from the U. S. Govt. on 15th July 1870 to the SW¼ of the SW¼ of 32-30-25 (along with the E ½ of same SW¼.)

The plat to this cem., in the office of the Register of Deeds of Crawford Co., Kans., shows that it was located in the NW cor. of the SW¼ of the SW¼ of Sect. 32-30-25.

> "State of Kansas, County of Crawford
> I, George Hobson, do hereby certify this to be a correct plat of Pittsburg Cemetery as surveyed and laid out by me. Witness my hand and seal this Oct. 15, 1881. (Sg.) George Hobson.
> Sworn & subscribed before me this 15th day of October 1881.
> Filed Nov 15 1881 and duly recorded in Plat Book B. on P. 4
> (Sg.) Geo. H. Wagner, Register of Deeds."

Note grave of George Hobson, 1837-1891, cemetery founder, on p. 3.

We noted 28 burials, in addition to partly legible stones, dated 1881 and earlier. The oldest was Bennie H. Ferguson died Aug 1 1872, a child, p. 3. (1 other in 1872:) William W. Redd p. 3. (4 in 1874:) Eddie & Clara Redd, p. 3; A. L. Doss p. 5: Emma Church, p. 10. (1 in 1875:) Rosa E. Ferguson, p. 3. (3 in 1876:) John Sr.and Etta Freek, p. 3; William Collins, p. 5. (4 in 1878:) Elizabeth Kinkaid & Eva Ettie Stotts p. 7; Dasie Hamilton, p. 1; Isabella Davis, p. 9. (5 in 1879:) Andrew Hamilton p. 1; Margaret Koerner, p. 6; James A. Kinkaid, p. 7; Viola A. Ferguson, p. 8; Clarence Witt, p. 11. (2 in 1880:) Maudie Hull, p 9; Altha A. Barr, p. 11. (9 in 1881:) Andrew Curnow & Frank Walker, p. 1; William H. Byram & Infant Whybark, p. 6; Edith Beadley, p. 7; Ernest W. Dyer, p. 9; Etta Scott p. 10; Agnes B. Freed, p. 12; Florence Hammack, p. 13.

The oldest birth date is that of Margaret, wife of M. A. Hurt, who died June 30 1883, aged 84-9-12, which indicates her birth date would have been Sept. 18, 1798, see p. 22. On p. 8, Charles Spragg born Jan 22 1805, appears to be the next oldest.

Mrs. Grove was a former Justice of the Peace here for four years. She was also secretary for the Ellis Motor Company and for Woodmen of the World Circle for many years.

She was a member of the Calvary United Methodist Church, the Dorothy Rebekah Lodge, a past Noble Grand of the Rebekah Lodge, Ladies Auxiliary Patriarch Militant, Chanute, and Woodmen of the World Circle.

Survivors include one brother, Wilbur W. Mitchem, Chanute; three sisters, Mrs. J. P. (Beulah) Digney, Coffeyville, Mrs. Ruth Johnston, Houston, and Mrs. Raymond (Mabel) Metzinger, Drumright, Oklahoma, and several nieces and nephews.

Over 100 friends and relatives called Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Metzinger, 114 West North, to help her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Digney, celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

Granddaughters of the honored couple who served were Mrs. Bert Schmutz of Madison, Kas., and Miss Mary Ann Metzinger, and Mrs. Gary Swibald of Wichita registered guests.

Mrs. John Metzinger was assisted with the reception by her sister, Mrs. Harold Keith of El Dorado; her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Metzinger, El Dorado; and her son's fiancee, Miss Karen Bafus. At the gift table were Mrs. Digney's sisters, Mrs. Grove of Iola and Mrs. Ruth Johnston of Edmond, Okla.

The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Digney yesterday morning reported to the sheriff's office here that his car had been stolen Wednesday night from a parking near Third and Keeler. Police said Digney did not notify them of the theft until he was picked up.

The collision in which Digney's car figured tied up traffic and a few minutes later another car plowed into the spectators, fatally injuring one of them and causing injuries to seven others.

The first collision occurred between a car driven by H. R. Horne, a Tulsan, and Digney's machine. Horne suffered broken ribs and other injuries. He told officers that the driver of the Digney car attempted to make a turn in front of his machine. The driver of the Digney car left the scene of the accident on foot.

VOSGES REGION STORM CENTER

ALLIES MAY TAKE OFFENSIVE IN PLACE OF LONG DELAYED HUN DRIVE

THE AIRMEN KEEP BUSY

Heavy Guns Battering American Sector, But Our Gunners Reply Effectively While Our Raiding Parties Hold Absolute Mastery of "No Man's Land" by Reason of Their Superiority in Indian Fighting.

(By Associated Press)

As the allied world has day after day read the official reports from the ally and Teutonic war offices in the hope that some inkling of the real situation would present itself, the realization has come that the American, French, British, Belgian and Portugese troops are maintaining their control over the front running from the North Sea to Switzerland. Artillery fire at some points of growing intensity is reported but the allies have held their own and their raiding parties are everywhere busy in the enemy trenches. The long expected and confidently awaited German drive has not materialized and the allies threaten to start an offensive of their own against the Teutonic legions.

There is hardly a sector on the western battle line which is not being marked by spirited action, but Verdun and the Vosges regions are apparently the storm centers where big events may develop. At Verdun the opposing artillery has been thundering for several days and on Monday the roll of the guns was kept up, especially on the right bank of the Meuse. In the Vosges mountains the artillery fighting is reported to be growing heavier altho no offensive action has been mentioned in the war office statements at Paris and Berlin.

Heavy guns are battering the American sector along the front and many shells of large calibre have fallen there. The American guns have replied with good effect and the excellent weather of the last few days has given the American airmen an opportunity to get pictures back of the German trenches.

Apparatus installed preparatory to another gas raid on the Americans has been destroyed by American artillery fire while American raiding parties following out their traditional Indian fighting tactics have kept

ARE YOU PATHOLOGICAL LIAR? IF YOU ARE, YOU CANNOT JOIN THE ARMY

CAMP LEWIS, Wash., March 18—The pathological liar has been found at Camp Lewis—and promptly expelled.

The pathological liar is the man who tells such beautiful lies he believes them himself. He can sit down and spin the most fanciful yarn about some great exploit of which he or some person he never heard of is the hero, and believes it.

When he tells them to Capt. Robert P. Smith, division psychiatrist at Camp Lewis, he is promptly branded a pathological liar, and the "benzine" board does the rest—retired to the inactive list at least, discharged for the convenience of the government.

WAS ROYAL BUCCANEER

Prince Cheerfully Admits He Was a Highwayman

AMSTERDAM, March 18.—The following story is told by the Cologne Gazette's special commissioner in Petrograd as typical of the extraordinary conditions prevailing there. He says: "An automobile taking a rich Finnish family home was stopped in Petersburg street by another auto whose armed occupants stripped the clothes from the travellers and stole half a million rubles worth of property. The police were powerless but a private detective run the robber band to earth and found it consisted of a Russian prince and his body servants.

"The prince cheerfully admitted that he had been living on the proceeds of highway robbery for a month. This, he asserted, was his only means of existence because he had been completely despoiled and ruined by the Bolsheviki. He submitted that if he is to be punished, others who drove him to the deed should be punished first."

PRINCE LICHNOWSKY SAYS FOREIGN POLICY PROVOKED WAR

KEPT ON GOUGING FRANCE

That Country Was Never Allowed to Forget and England Was Constantly Threatened, Former Ambassador to Great Britain Declares in Confidential Communication.—Sir Edward Grey Found Way Out.

STOCKHOLM, March 18.—The foreign policy of the German government before the war is criticized severely in a memorandum written by Prince Lichnowsky, German ambassador at London when the war began, which is published in the Politiken, organ of the Extreme Left of the Socialists. The memorandum was written in August, 1916, for the purpose of explaining and justifying to personal friends his position, which had been assailed.

After describing the circumstances which led to his appointment in 1912 as ambassador to England, Prince Lichnowsky says the moment undoubtedly was favorable for a new attempt to establish a better footing with England. He continues:

"Our enigmatical Moroccan policy had repeatedly shaken confidence in our peaceful disposition. An Austrian colleague who was long in Paris said to me: 'If the French begin to forget their desire for revenge for the Franco-Prussian war, you regularly remind them of it by treading heavily on their toes.'

"After the rejection of the attempt of Delcasse (then French foreign minister) to reach an agreement concerning Morocco, and after declaring that we had no political interests there, we suddenly recognized in Abd-El-Aziz (then Sultan of Morocco) a Kruger number two. Our attitude promoted the Russo-Japanese and Russo-British reapprochements. In the face of the German peril all other conflicts fell into the background. The possibility of a new Franco-German war had become evident."

Describing the situation at the time of the Balkan war, Prince Lichnowsky says two policies were open to Germany, either to act as an imperial mediator and seek a stable settlement in accordance with the wishes of the

WHEAT PRICE IS DEBATE SUBJECT

Senator Gore's Measure Supported by Republican Leaders.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Western senators renewed their fight for a higher guaranteed wheat price today, citing the ability of farmers to make more money raising other cereals, shortage and increased cost of farm labor and vital necessity of insuring adequate wheat supplies.

The debate was on Senator Gore's proposal to increase the price for the 1918 crop to $2.50 a bushel. A two-thirds majority is required to sus-

Howard Mitchem Killed in Action On Battle Front April 15, 1915

While the men from Bartlesville and Washington county are going to the military camps and preparing themselves for the battle lines in Europe it is interesting to know that at least one Bartlesville lad has already laid down his life on those lines in the cause of humanity.

Howard H. Mitchem, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Mitchem, [illegible] Oak street, this city, was killed in action at Verdun, April 15, 1915. Young Mitchem was a member of the British army and had been serving in Egypt when his parents last heard from him by letter. They were later advised by the British war office of their son's death. He was buried near the battle lines where he fell.

Germans Declare Dutch Ships Must Be Exchanged for Others.

WASHINGTON, March [illegible]—Preparations for taking over the Dutch ships in American ports tomorrow were completed tonight while the government expected momentarily to receive from London a reply to the British-American ship ultimatum. Today was the last day given the Netherlands government to make a reply.

Officials say they have intimation of what the reply would be, whether it would accept the transfer of Dutch tonnage now in American and British waters or would endeavor to open further parleys in an effort to satisfy both the allies and Germany.

LENINE PLAYED A JOKER

In Jamming Thru Brest-Litovsk Peace Treaty Bolshevik Premier Refused to Let All the Terms be Known.—Details of People's Betrayal Are Now Beginning to Come to Light.

PETROGRAD, March 18.—The vote in the Moscow congress for the ratification of peace was 704 to 261. The ratification of the peace pact was a typical "steam roller" process. M. Martoff, chief of the Menshevik faction, charged that the full treaty was not publicly known and said that the indemnity demanded by Germany was 9 billion rubles (4,635 million dollars), instead of 3 billion rubles previously announced. He also charged that the treaty declares Petrograd "a free city."

Regarding the economic terms of the treaty, Martoff asserted the denationalization of Russian banks was a triumph for capitalistic Russia. He said the treaty provided for division of Russia between Germany, Austria, Rumania, Japan and other powers. He pleaded for rejection of the treaty and a union against all foes.

Premier Lenine spoke at midnight and repeated his arguments for ratification of the pact.

Two Bolshevist commissioners quit the Russian cabinet, in addition to the four Social-Revolutionaries of the Left, as a result of the pan-Soviet's ratification of the German peace treaty at Moscow Saturday, it became known today. The latter's action was preannounced, but that of the Bolsheviki came as a surprise.

The Bolshevist ministers were M. Dibenko and M. Kolontai. The Social-Revolutionaries were M. Steinburg, M. Galagnieff, M. Karelin and M. Proshian. The latter announced their party's intention of declaring a "merciless war on imperialism."

The chairman of the pan-Soviet convention read the greeting from Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, representing the American laborers. He added that "Gompers is the American Scheidemann," and said he believed

The Helles Memorial is one of five Memorials to the Missing for Commonwealth troops who lost their lives in the eight month-long Gallipoli campaign and who have no known grave. Landing at Cape Helles

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The landing at Cape Helles was part of the amphibious invasion of the Gallipoli peninsula by British and French forces on April 25, 1915 during the First World War. Helles, at the foot of the peninsula, was the main landing area. With the support of the guns of the Royal Navy, a British division was to advance 6 miles (9.7 km) along the peninsula on the first day and seize the heights of Achi Baba. From there they would go on to capture the forts that guarded the straits of the Dardanelles. Another landing was made to the north at Gaba Tepe by the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps (ANZAC).

The Helles landing was mismanaged by the British commander, Major General Aylmer Hunter-Weston. The two main beaches became bloodbaths, despite the meagre defences, while the landings at other sites were not exploited. although the British managed to gain a foothold ashore, their plans were in disarray. For the next two months they would stage a number of costly battles in attempt to reach the objectives that they had intended to take on the first day. In each battle they would inch closer but they never managed to get there.

Cape Helles

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Cape Helles is the rocky headland at the south-westernmost tip of the Gallipoli peninsula, Turkey. It was the scene of heavy fighting between Turkish and British troops during the landing at Cape Helles at the beginning of the Gallipoli Campaign in 1915.

It is now the site of one of the main memorials of the campaign maintained by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission, particularly for those that were part of British and Indian forces (rather than ANZAC forces) fighting there.[1]

It takes the form of an obelisk over 30 metres high that can be seen by ships passing through the Dardanelles.
Historical Information:	The eight month campaign in Gallipoli was fought by Commonwealth and French forces in an attempt to force Turkey out of the war, to relieve the deadlock of the Western Front in France and Belgium, and to open a supply route to Russia through the Dardanelles and the Black Sea. The Allies landed on the peninsula on 25-26 April 1915; the 29th Division at Cape Helles in the south and the Australian and New Zealand Corps north of Gaba Tepe on the west coast, an area soon known as Anzac. On 6 August, further landings were made at Suvla, just north of Anzac, and the climax of the campaign came in early August when simultaneous assaults were launched on all three fronts. However, the difficult terrain and stiff Turkish resistance soon led to the stalemate of trench warfare. From the end of August, no further serious action was fought and the lines remained unchanged. The peninsula was successfully evacuated in December and early January 1916. The Helles Memorial serves the dual function of Commonwealth battle memorial for the whole Gallipoli campaign and place of commemoration for many of those Commonwealth servicemen who died there and have no known grave. The United Kingdom and Indian forces named on the memorial died in operations throughout the peninsula, the Australians at Helles. There are also panels for those who died or were buried at sea in Gallipoli waters. The memorial bears more than 21,000 names. There are four other Memorials to the Missing at Gallipoli. The Lone Pine, Hill 60, and Chunuk Bair Memorials commemorate Australian and New Zealanders at Anzac. The Twelve Tree Copse Memorial commemorates the New Zealanders at Helles.

Naval casualties of the United Kingdom lost or buried at sea are recorded on their respective Memorials at Portsmouth, Plymouth and Chatham, in the United Kingdom.

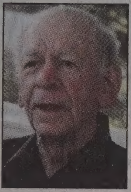
On 100th anniversary of ill-fated Gallipoli battle, thousands gather to honor soldiers

- Around 130,000 troops died during the British-led WWI invasion.

BY DESMOND BUTLER
Associated Press

GALLIPOLI, Turkey — For the first time at age 95, Bill Grayden has come to Gallipoli, where his father stormed the beach and took a bullet through his lung during the ill-fated British-led World War I invasion.



Grayden

Grayden was among thousands of Australians and New Zealanders who made the pilgrimage from the southern hemisphere to this distant peninsula in Turkey. They joined world leaders at a dawn service Saturday marking exactly 100 years since the invasion, which had aimed to secure a naval route from the Mediterranean to Istanbul through the Dardanelles and take the Ottomans out of the war.

During the emotional ceremony, Britain's Prince Charles and the prime ministers of Australia and New Zealand spoke of the heroism of the soldiers from their countries and other Allied nations.

"For so many, the rising sun that day would be their last," Australia's Chief of Defense, Air Chief Marshal Mark Binskin, told the crowd of thousands gathered at Anzac Cove near the landing site.

That was not the case for Bill Grayden's father, Len. Five days after the landing, the elder Grayden was found wounded and nearly motionless on the field. During the heat of battle, someone noticed a slight hand movement, and he was evacuated to a hospital ship and ultimately survived. The subtle moment that determined his fate demonstrates how small differences can substantially change the course of history.

Britain's Prince Charles walks with an unidentified Turkish veteran Saturday to place carnations on the graves of Turkish soldiers at the 57th Turkish Regiment cemetery and memorial site at the Gallipoli peninsula in Turkey. One of the most harrowing campaigns of the 20th century, the battle resulted in over 130,000 deaths on both sides. BURHAN OZBILICI/Associated Press

Len Grayden returned to Australia to raise a family. His son Bill later served in multiple campaigns in World War II and became a politician. He has raised 10 children of his own, and now has 44 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren and so far one great-great-grandchild.

The Gallipoli campaign also altered the course for the countries on both sides of the trenches. The landings marked the start of a fierce battle that lasted for eight months. Around 44,000 Allied troops and 86,000 Ottoman soldiers died. Australians and New Zealanders mark the anniversary of the landings every year as important national days of remembrance.

Many of the attendees at Saturday's service had slept at the commemoration site in sleeping bags. Most had won the coveted tickets in national lotteries.

The tragic fate of troops from Australia and New Zealand is said to have inspired an identity distinct from the British. The anniversary of the start of the land campaign on April 25, known as ANZAC Day, after the Australia and New Zealand Army Corps, is marked as a coming of age for both nations.

"In volunteering to serve, they became more than soldiers. They became the founding heroes of modern Australia," Australian Prime Minister Tony Abbott said at the service.

The doomed offensive came to be seen as a folly of British war planning. The decision to launch the attack nearly ended the career of Winston Churchill, who as First Lord of the Admiralty came up with the plan he thought would help bring an early end to the war.

Prince Charles spoke about soldiers who were "tormented by the thought of their comrades being left behind" and that their graves would remain unvisited.

He appeared to be moved as he read from passages written by Lt. Ken Miller of the 2nd Battalion and Benjamin Leane of the 10th Battalion. Leane had addressed his wife and children from Gallipoli, saying that he was not afraid of death or what comes after. He later died in France, never to see them again.

Turkish officials and soldiers also took part in the dawn remembrance, part of two days of ceremonies at the site of the battle. Gallipoli was also important in the emergence of modern Turkey.

Mustafa Kemal Ataturk used his prominence as a commander at Gallipoli, known as Canakkale to the Turks, to vault into prominence, lead Turkey's War of Independence and ultimately found the Turkish Republic.

Thousands marched in Gallipoli to honor the soldiers of the Turkish 57th Regiment, among the first unit to defend against the ANZAC landings, which Ataturk — then Lt. Col. Mustafa Kemal — famously commanded: "I do not order you to attack, I order you to die."

In the Turkish capital, Ankara, the mausoleum of Ataturk was left open throughout the night, allowing thousands of visitors to pay their respects to their "Gazi" — Ataturk's honorary title as a victorious Turkish warrior.

A century after the smoke cleared from the beaches at Gallipoli, officials from the countries representing both sides of the battles spoke of their respect for their former enemies.

New Zealand's Prime Minister John Key noted that when the ANZAC forces landed, Ottoman Turks were defending their homeland.

"We have coastlines similar to this at home. If the situation were reversed we know that New Zealand soldiers would have been willing to lay down their lives to defend their country," he said.

KATHMANDU, Nepal — Tens of thousands of people were spending the night in the open under a chilly and thunderous sky after a powerful earthquake devastated Nepal on Saturday, killing nearly 1,400, collapsing modern houses and ancient temples and triggering an avalanche on Mount Everest. Officials warned the death toll would rise as more reports came in from far-flung areas.

Inspector Yuvraj Khadka of Nepal's national police force said the rescue effort was continuing through the night and the death toll had reached 1,394 people. The magnitude-7.8 earthquake, which originated outside the capital Kathmandu, was the worst tremor to hit the poor South Asian nation in over 80 years. It was strong enough to be felt all across the northern part of neighboring India, Bangladesh, Tibet and Pakistan, where a total of 50 people died.

As Nepal trembled, residents fled homes and buildings in panic. Walls tumbled, trees swayed, power lines came crashing down and large cracks opened up on streets and walls. Clouds of

Volcano still active, but Chile no longer fears major blast

• Officials downgrade risk while residents begin cleaning up.

BY PATRICIA LUNA
Associated Press

SANTIAGO, Chile — Authorities downgraded the likelihood of a major eruption at the Calbuco volcano, although the mountain remained active Saturday and the ash clouds it already ejected caused cancellations of more airline flights.

Rodrigo Alvarez, head of the National Mining and Geology Service, told TVN television that Calbuco's seismic activity had changed, and experts no longer expected any additional eruption to exceed the two big blasts of Wednesday and Thursday. He stressed that the volcano was likely to remain active and said more eruptions are possible.

Officials urged people to keep using masks or handkerchiefs to prevent breathing in dust, and they warned against drinking water from surface springs.

A few airline flights were canceled Saturday as ash from Calbuco spread over more of the southern half of South America, although most flights were unaffected.

At the foot of the volcano authorities allowed some of the 1,500 people who evacuated the town of Ensenada to return temporarily to their homes to carry out belongings and clean up damage from the heavy ash fall. Numerous buildings were damaged by the weight of ash that blanketed Ensenada, which is the closest town to Calbuco.

"Here there is nothing else to do, rescue the little that you can and move on.

"And there are no more words. All that happened is in sight, and this house is no longer good for anything," Andres Reyes said of his house.

Residents also sought to care for their cattle, the main livelihood of the town.

Interior Minister Rodrigo Penailillo, who visited the area around the volcano about 620 miles south of Chile's capital, said the government would compensate farmers for losses from the eruptions.

Fish farms, another major business for the affected area, also had significant damage, with ash fall choking thousands of fish in their tanks.

GALLIPOLI

On 12th January 1915, the battalion on its return from China landed at Devonport, and, with the 1st King's Own Scottish Borderers, 1st Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers and 1st Border Regiment joined the 87th Brigade of the 29th Division billetted at Coventry, Rugby and neighbouring towns. This, the last of the foreign service Regular Divisions, after a memorable inspection by His Majesty the King, left England in March for the attack on the Gallipoli Peninsula. The object of the expedition was to open a passage for ships through the Straits of Helles into the Sea of Marmora and on through the Bosphorus at Constantinople into the Black Sea, thus enabling Russia to export the grain needed by the Allies and to import munitions of war.

On 25th April 1915, the 29th Division made its historic 'Landing at Helles', a feat of arms which could have been achieved by no soldiers in the world but seasoned British infantry. They landed in broad daylight on open beaches defended by barbed wire covered at close range by rifles and machine guns. The battalion landed three Companies at S Beach on the shores of Morto Bay just inside the Straits at the comparatively light cost of 2 officers and 18 men killed and drowned and 2 officers and 40 men wounded. A Company was detached to land with the KOSB and Marines at Y Beach on the Mediterranean shore. This attack though successful was unsupported and had to withdraw, A Company making a most gallant counter attack with the bayonet to cover the retirement. It had heavy fighting, losing the Company Commander and 26 men killed and missing, and an officer and 42 men wounded.

The Battalion served throughout the rest of the Gallipoli campaign. In the efforts to advance from Cape Helles in May and June it fought with great determination and stubbornness. In August it moved round with the rest of the 29th Division to Suvla Bay, where a new landing by five fresh divisions from England had been brought to a standstill. In a final effort here the 29th put in a most gallant though unsuccessful attack on Scimitar Hill, in which the battalion suffered nearly 300 casualties. Brought back to Helles in October, the battalion took part in the final evacuation of the Peninsula on 8th January 1916, and was sent to Egypt.

PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1910.

In writing this prophecy it is not my wish to in any way deviate, but I desire to tell the truth and the truth only as I experineced it.

Last winter, one cold day, I was out hunting and, coming upon the tracks of a "bunny", I determined to follow him to his hiding place. I plodded on through the snow, and soon became so engrossed in my task that I did not notice that it was becoming dark until I lost sight of the tracks. Then for the first time I saw that I was in a place strange to me. I looked all about me but could recognize no familiar landmarks. The realization slowly dawned upon me that I was lost.

There was not a habitation i sight and I was at a loss to know what to do. It was much too cold to remain out of doors all night so I must find shelter. While I was standing pondering what to do, I heard steps behind me and, turning, I beheld an aged man with long grey hair and beard. He was leaning upon a stick and walked with d difficulty. I stood and waited respectfully for him to speak, which he did only after scrutinizing me carefully.

"My son," said he, "you are the one decreed by fate. Come!"

I was filled with amazement by his strange words and at first thought him insame. A second glance, however, showed in his eyes so I followed him without further hesitation.

He led me about a mile to a spot which was well known to me. Here we entered a cave, the existence of which was so effectually concealed that any one unacquainted with it would pass it by without being aware of it. The furnishings of the cave were very scant, consisting of only a pallet, a rude fireplace of stone and a large flat stone evidently used as a table. A fire was burning in the fireplace, and the whole cave was quite warm and comfortable.

I was of course curious as to why I had been led hither, but my curiosity was not satisfied for some time for the old man sat for perhaps an hour, gazing at me fixedly all the while. I must confess I felt rather uncomfortable under his gaze, but my curiosity got the better of my diffidence, and I endured the scrutiny.

At length he addressed me in a slow meditative manner as if he weighed each word carefully before uttering it, "My son, you are probably curious as to why I have brought you here, so I will explain: My father was as you must know, a Hindu sorcerer. My mother was an English woman, and though she reared me after her own ideas and taught me the English language, my father also instructed me in sorcery. On his death bed he gave into my keeping something of which I shall tell you later. This something I was to keep throughout my life and, upon my death, give it to my eldest son, or if I had no descendants, to anyone who I knew was trustworthy. I know by certain signs that my end is at hand. By this tomorrow I shall be dead. I have lived here the most of my life, and you are one of the very few who have seen me. Come here tomorrow and get what you will find in that niche in the wall. I will leave a note explaining it."

With these words he dismissed me and I returned home. The next day at the appointed hour I entered the cave. There was no one to be seen so I went to the niche at once. There I found a small square box with these words upon it: "The is the magic disk enchanted by Allah Hammad. It will foretell the future and answer any question relating to the future. Keep until your death. Leave it to your oldest descendant or some trustworthy friend but show it to no one while you live."

I was of course incredulous and resolved to try it at once. The thought flashed through my mind to question this mysterious disk ~~enchanted by Allah H~~ concerning the future of the class of 1910. My first question was: "What will be the future career of Loes Davis?"

At once there appeared upon the surface of the disk as large and natural as life, the form of my friend. He was perhaps thirty years old but I could easily recognize him. I saw at once that he was in a laboratory as he was surrounded by scientific apparatus of all sorts. Just at present he was occupied with an experiment of some sort and soon I saw him extract from a large furnace several diamonds which he examined carefully. It was plain that he had discovered a methof for making the precious gems. Then there passed over the disk in rapid succession many scientific treatises all written by O. L. Davis.

Thus satisfied as to the future greatness of this friend I asked about Harry Snodgress. There appeared at once upon the disk a crowded courtroom. Thousands of people were sitting listening in breathless silence, as I could perceive by their statue-like appearance, to the eloquent speech of a young man whom I recognized as none other than Harry Snodgress. He finished his speech and I could see the applause which arose from the crowd but they ceased their efforts when another man arose. Where had I seen him before? Then almost instantly it accured to me that this was my friend Maurice Brin. Again the crowd was hushed and remained attentive for some time until the speaker sat down, when he received applause equal to that of the other. I saw at once that my two friends were arguing a law suit and I remembered the determination they had both expressed of becoming lawyers.

Next I inquired about the future of my schoolmate Adrian Mann. This time there appeared upon the disk the interior of a oarge clothing store. Dozens of clerks were busily employed, and at a desk at the rear sat a tall dignified man, changed but still the same old Adrian Mann. I perceived that this one of my friends was the proprietor of a large business and I remembered where he had gained his experience.

Then I thought of looking into the future destiny of my friend, John Ingram. Accordingly I make the inquiry and there loomed up before my gaze a large twelve story building. On the side, near the top, were painted these words: "Ingram Business College". Then Then I saw the interior of the building. First, in an elegant office sat a dark haired man dictating a letter to a stenographer. I had no difficulty in recognizing the dark haired man as my old friend and school-mate, John Ingram. I remembered that he had been prominent in the commercial studies at old B. H. S., and so accounted for his elevated position.

It now occured to me to read the fortunes of my girl friends and school-mates, so I inquired about Grace Evans. Immediately I beheld the interior of a large studio. The walls were decorated with many beautiful paintings which were the work of two young ladies who now sat busily employed before easels. One of the young ladies was Grace Evans and the other Margaret Myers. I recalled their excellent work in art in High School andsaw that they had continued in the same course.

Ora and Ola Jones were the next to claim my attention. Upon my asking for a revelation of their destinies, there appeared before me a large building, over the door of which I read the words: "Academy of Domestic Science". Then I saw within the same building. There busily employed in instructing several hundreds fo young ladies, I saw the Jones twins. It was evident that they had arisen to this elevated position through diligent study of which I knew they were both capable.

I now desired to know of the future welfare of Katie Willis and made known my wish. What I saw now was a large theater. Several thousands of people were listening in breathless silence to the words of a golden haired lady whom I knew at a glance as Katie Willis. One moment her audience was moved to tears, the next to laughter. Her greatness was explained when I remembered the excellent readings [illegible] my life, [illegible]. My next desire was to know about Ruby Graybill. There appeared on the disk a large automobile which whizzed along and stopped before a splendid mansion . Then there stepped from the auto a lady elegantly clad sho mounted the steps of the house and went in. I had easily recognized her as my old school-mate, Ruby Graybill but the name upon the marble block in front of the house was not Graybill, so I drew my own conclusions.

One more yet remained whose future I would know so I asked about the destiny of Mabel Hallman. I immediately saw a large building in thespacious window of which appeared hundreds of beautiful hats while upon the windows I read "Millinery Emporium, Mlle., Maybelle Hallman, Sole Proprietress".

Thus was the future of each of my classmates foretold. But in my eagerness I showed the disk to a friend whereupon it shattered into a thousand peices thus leaving me no proof of my tale.

I firmly believe, however, that it told me the truth which I hope will be proven by future events.

ARE YOU PATHOLOGICAL LIAR? IF YOU ARE, YOU CANNOT JOIN THE ARMY

CAMP LEWIS, Wash., March 18.—The pathological liar, has been found at Camp Lewis—and promptly expelled.

The pathological liar is the man who tells such beautiful lies he believes them himself. He can sit down and spin the most fanciful yarn about some great exploit of which he or some person he never heard of is the hero, and believes it.

When he tells them to Capt. Robert P. Smith, division psychiatrist at Camp Lewis, he is promptly branded a pathological liar, and the "benzine" board does the rest—retired to the inactive list at least, discharged for the convenience of the government.

Prince Cheerfully Admits He Was a Highwayman

AMSTERDAM, March 18.—The following story is told by the Cologne Gazette's special commissioner in Petrograd as typical of the extraordinary conditions prevailing there. He says: "An automobile taking a rich Finnish family home was stopped in Petersburg street by another auto whose armed occupants stripped the clothes from the travellers and stole half a million rubles worth of property. The police were powerless but a private detective ran the robber band to earth and found it consisted of a Russian prince and his body servants.

"The prince cheerfully admitted that he had been living on the proceeds of highway robbery for a month. This, he asserted, was his only means of existence because he had been completely despoiled and ruined by the Bolsheviki. He submitted that if he is to be punished, others who drove him to the deed should be punished

KAISER ALWAYS IN THE WRONG

PRINCE LICHNOWSKY SAYS FOREIGN POLICY PROVOKED WAR

KEPT ON GOUGING FRANCE

That Country Was Never Allowed to Forget and England Was Constantly Threatened, Former Ambassador to Great Britain Declares in Confidential Communication.—Sir Edward Grey Found Way Out.

STOCKHOLM, March 18.—The foreign policy of the German government before the war is criticized severely in a memorandum written by Prince Lichnowsky, German ambassador at London when the war began, which is published in the Politiken, organ of the Extreme Left of the Socialists. The memorandum was written in August, 1916, for the purpose of explaining and justifying to personal friends his position, which had been assailed.

After describing the circumstances which led to his appointment in 1912 as ambassador to England, Prince Lichnowsky says the moment undoubtedly was favorable for a new attempt to establish a better footing with England. He continues:

"Our enigmatical Moroccan policy had repeatedly shaken confidence in our peaceful disposition. An Austrian colleague who was long in Paris said to me: 'If the French begin to forget their desire for revenge for the Franco-Prussian war, you regularly remind them of it by treading heavily on their toes.'

"After the rejection of the attempt of Delcasse (then French foreign minister) to reach an agreement concerning Morocco, and after declaring that we had no political interests there, we suddenly recognized in Abd-El-Aziz (then Sultan of Morocco) a Kruger number two. Our attitude promoted the Russo-Japanese and Russo-British reapprochements. In the face of the German peril all other conflicts fell into the background. The possibility of a new Franco-German war had become evident."

Describing the situation at the time of the Balkan war, Prince Lichnowsky says two policies were open to Germany, either to act as an imperial

Howard Mitchem Killed in Action On Battle Front April 15. 1915.

While the men from Bartlesville and Washington county are going to the military camps and preparing themselves for the battle lines in Europe it is interesting to know that at least one Bartlesville lad has already laid down his life on those lines in the cause of humanity.

Howard H. Mitchem, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Mitchem, 1010 Oak street, this city, was killed in action at Verdun, April 15, 1915. Young Mitchem was a member of the British army and had been serving in Egypt when his parents last heard from him by letter. They were later advised by the British war office of their son's death. He was buried near the battle lines where he fell.

Germans Declare Dutch Ships Must Be Exchanged for Others.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Preparations for taking over the Dutch ships in American ports tomorrow were completed tonight while the government expected momentarily to receive from London a reply to the British-American ship ultimatum. Today was the last day given the Netherlands government to make a reply.

Officials say they have intimation of what the reply would be, whether it would accept the transfer of Dutch tonnage now in American and British

High School Honor Roll Shows 58 Served in War

Although the Bartlesville high school has never had a graduating class of 58 students in its history, the roll of honor printed in this week's issue of "The Nautilus," the weekly high school paper, shows that 58 graduates and students of the high school served under the colors during the late war.

The "roll of honor" which the "Nautilus" features on the first page on its "Armistice" edition includes the following names:

FIRST BARTLESVILLE BOY FELL AT VERDUN FIGHTING WITH BRITISH

Howard Mitchem Killed in Action On Battle Front April 15, 1915.

While the men from Bartlesville and Washington county are going to the military camps and preparing themselves for the battle lines in Europe it is interesting to know that at least one Bartlesville lad has already laid down his life on those lines in the cause of humanity.

Howard H. Mitchem oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Mitchem, 1000 Oak street, this city, was killed in action at Verdun, April 15, 1915. Young Mitchem was a member of the British army and had been serving in Egypt when his parents last heard from him by letter. They were later advised by the British war office of their son's death. He was buried near the battle lines where he fell.

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Subject: Re: Questions about Helen C. Chaney and her father Milo.

Yes mam, "Ranch Life in The Great Southwest" is the one!
I actually just went to the Tom Mix Museum last Saturday and looked for a copy of the film. Sadly, they don't have it. However, I did find that the original is located at the New Mexico historical museum. The funny thing is, they are claiming it was filmed there in New Mexico and released in 1915, when it obviously wasn't, due to the strong cast of Bartlesville cowboys, such as your relative Milo Overlees and the clearly visible "blue mound". I will be calling them this week to find out if there's any way I could get a copy of the film as well as let them know that their information about where it was shot and when is wrong. The film has been incredibly hard to track down so far. From what I've read Tom Mix was actually not a main man in this one. It's supposed to be kind of like a short rodeo style documentary with a little theatrics.
I have actually seen that list of the cast you sent me. It was what made me start looking up information on Milo. The main attraction to writing this article is Blue Mound. I have found some very interesting things about this landmark and the surrounding land, not to mention the legendary short film shot around it. The cast is incredible. It's really a who's who of Bartlesville Cowboys, other than the two 101 ranch Miller brothers. I'm surprised this film hasn't been sought out and shown regulatory at the Bartlesville History Museum. I have been looking up anything I can about the history of each cast member. I've found some strange information that Emmitt Dalton may been on location of the film as well. He was a roping judge at the Dewey Roundup in 1908, not even a year after his parole, which led me to a biographical book about a cowboy who remembers Emmitt messing around a "flicker" shoot around a town called Dewey. I have a few questions for you if you know them or care to answer.

-Is there any information passed down in your family about this film?

-Do you know anything about the historical blue mound and the present day blue mound? Do you know if the mound is still a part of the land handed down to Marion Tate from the Moore's? Do you know anything about the carved signatures in the rocks on top?

-Do you know what Milo was like at all? Did he have any connections to the 101 Ranch?

Thank you so much for the information you have already given me on your family tree. It's very helpful. If I ever come across a copy of the film I will gladly make a copy of it for you. I'm sure you may be interested in seeing your relative Milo in action as well as some of the other legendary fellas in there.

Oh, and I almost forgot to add that I am writing this for this land press, and possibly the Bartlesville Monthly Magazine in their September edition.

Thanks Mary!

Hello Mary. My name is Andrew Fouts and I am doing some research for a local magazine about a silent movie that was filmed in Bartlesville, OK in 1910. I was reading about Helen C. Chaney and her father Milo and stumbled upon your e-mail address on findagrave.com. I was wondering if you were any relation to Helen C. Chaney and if you knew anything about the short silent film Milo and his father Frank Overlees appeared in called "Ranch Life in The Great Southwest". Any information would be greatly appreciated. If not, then I'm sorry for bothering you.

Thanks,
Andrew

Another old timer of Washington County has passed away when Milo H. He had been a resident of Bartlesville since 1898 and for many years was identified with different meat markets as a butcher.

TRIESTE CRISIS NEARS SOLUTION

TRIESTE, May 23—(AP)—The dispute between Allied governments and Marshal Tito over occupation of Trieste appeared near a final settlement today after a tense period during a sharp exchange between Field Marshal Sir Harold Alexander and the Yugoslav leader.

Alexander, supreme Allied commander in the Mediterranean theater, inspected New Zealand troops

HE TAKES DAY OFF

CLEARFIELD, Utah, May 23—(AP)—Joseph Charles Manning, an employee at the naval supply depot here, is going to take a few hours off from work Friday—but just long enough to celebrate his 100th birthday with his fellow-workers. The Springfield, Mass., native, who says he has supported himself since he was eight years old, will also be honored at a party given by his several children. Manning depicts himself as a veteran of several wars who "marched with Sherman to the sea and prizes a silver medal pinned on him by President Lincoln.

fifth largest city, which had a prewar population of 5,000.

Another heavy night counterattack against Maj. Gen. Pedro A. Del Valle's First marine division on the west flank was turned back with 50 Japanese killed.

Twelve to 15 Japanese planes attacked American shipping in the Okinawa area at dusk Monday. Eight were shot down and the remainder were chased off. No damage was reported.

American commanders at Okinawa forecast the breakdown soon of organized last-stand Japanese resistance on the island under the continuous grinding pressure of U. S. Tenth army infantry and marines.

"If the weather doesn't impede us think we will break the Jap resistance soon," said Maj. Gen. Roy Geiger, commander of the Third amphibious marine corps' sixth and first divisions at the front.

The Yanks will "capture this island in the comparatively near future," said Vice Adm. Richmond K. Turner, commander of naval forces around the island.

Turner said Okinawa, three-fourths in American hands, already is a base for aerial attacks on southern Japan, only 325 miles to the north, and on Formosa and enemy air bases in the Ryukyus.

CHINESE REPORT
22 MILE GAIN

CHUNGKING, May 22 —(AP)— Chinese troops hurling back strong enemy counter-attacks, have ripped 22 miles into Japanese lines in the initial blows of China's new offensive against the south end of the broad enemy lifeline to Indo-China and Burma, the high command disclosed Tuesday night.

The developing Chinese offensive in Kwangsi province 150 miles north of Indo-China was regarded by the Chungking observers as the war's most serious Chinese threat to the west flank of Japan's trans-China supply corridor.

Striking out from the captured Japanese bastion of Hochih, 330 miles south of Chungking, Chinese forces were sweeping eastward toward the vital Japanese-held rail city of Liuchow.

No Prospect For More Newsprint

WASHINGTON, May 22—(AP)— The war production board announced Tuesday that the outlook for increased supplies of newsprint paper for newspapers in the July-September quarter is "not too favorable at this time."

Director Hale Steinman of WPB's printing and publishing division reported that Canada would increase its monthly newsprint shipments from 200,000 to 215,000 tons monthly starting July 1 and running through the third quarter of 1945.

This increase is offset, however, by a back-log of 50,00 tons of deferred newsprint orders which has accumulated on the books of paper manufacturers since the start of the year, Steinman said.

day to $27,000 Tuesday, and the other individually-bought bond total increased from $376,000 to $460,000 for the same period, making a grand total of $698,000 to date, the chairman said.

Students and faculty members at Central high school gave the E bond drive a boost yesterday when they purchased 30 bonds for a total face value of $1,875.

It was the last bond day of the year for Central and it put them over their $4,815 goal in buying and sponsoring a "Weasel" for the armed forces, Miss Florence Ingham, sponsor of the school's stamp and bond club, said.

Of the morning's total, $878.10 was in cash which, Miss Ingham said, was a splendid day's work for the students and faculty members.

Allies Move In; Tito Backs Out

TRIESTE, May 22—(AP)—American and British troops extended their control north and east of the Isonzo river above Trieste Tuesday, pushing into Yugoslav-garrisoned territory and it was believed that the tense period in this disputed area was about over.

(Allied headquarters in Rome announced that the Eighth army had occupied positions along a 20-mile line running north from Trieste to a point five miles east of Gorizia and taken the towns of Montespino and Tarnova. The penetration was described as a "further step in their forward concentration into Venezia Giulia."

(During the day, the new positions were inspected by Gen. Mark W. Clark, commander of the Allied 15th army group.)

While there was no information here on the next steps contemplated by the U. S. and British governments, it was understood that Marshal Tito's Yugoslav government had agreed, in its latest note to Washington and London, with minor stipulations to all proposals put forward for a peaceful settlement of the argument whether the Trieste zone should belong to Yugoslavia or Italy.

Indication of the easing of tension was received with enthusiasm by Allied troops, many of whom had never celebrated V-E day properly because of the situation here.

One Doughboy who had been standing guard at a bridge for days said with feeling: "The sooner I can kiss this part of the world goodbye the better I'll like it."

MORE RUSSIAN STATES TO SEEK ADMISSION

SAN FRANCISCO May 22—(AP) D. Z. Manuilsky, chief Ukrainian delegate, predicted Tuesday that many other Russian soviets would seek admission to the United Nations as separate members.

At present the Soviet Union is represented at the United Nations conference by the Ukrainian republic, the White Russian republic and the main Russian Soviet which has its capital at Moscow. There are more than a dozen others, including the three Baltic states at Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia.

the road trucking was hampered by a shortage of loading and unloading facilities.

At least one war plant, the Automatic Electric company, manufacturer of signal and telephone equipment for the armed forces, was compelled to shut down. Police labor detail squad cars were convoying within Chicago trucks handling war materials drugs for hospitals and perishable foods.

A suit demanding damages of $1,000,000 was filed against the striking independent Chicago Truck Drivers' Union by the Keeshin Motor Express company, headed by John L. Keeshin.

The suit, filed in federal court, alleged the concern would be forced out of business unless the strikers were ordered to comply with the war labor disputes act. The suit was the second one filed since the strike began.

On Saturday, the Motor Express, Inc., and the Chicago Tunnel Transport company sued for a total of $1,100,000 on similar grounds.

Referral of the strike, in effect since midnight Wednesday, to Davis raised the possibility of wartime sanctions upon the strikers.

These sanctions could include cancellation of draft deferments and disallowance of retroactive pay granted under the WLB wage award which the strikers are protesting.

The war labor board had directed the men to return to work before the board, under established policy, could reconsider the wage question. At a meeting last night the men defied the WLB instructions and voted to stay off the job.

The union struck in protest against refusal of their full demands for shorter hours and more pay. The WLB granted a wage increase of eight cents an hour for a 51-hour week. The strikers, receiving $42 to $51.50 for a 51-hour week, demanded $42 to $56.50 for a 48-hour week

M. H. Overlees Dies In Oklahoma City

Milo H. (Jack) Overlees, 58, a resident of Bartlesville since 1898, died early Tuesday morning in Oklahoma City university hospital where he had been a patient since last September.

Overlees, who had made his home with a sister, Letty Overlees had been in ill health for several years. Before he lost his health, he was a butcher.

He was born in Prescott, Kan., on March 19, 1887, and came to Bartlesville with his parents in 1898. In addition to the sister here he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Helen Chaney, Amarillo, Texas; one grandchild, Carol Chaney, another sister, Mrs. Ethel Busan, Bartlesville.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by the Neekamps.

motor company building.

The ambulance was found abandoned Tuesday morning on the Phillips parking lot at Fourth and Jennings. It had been stolen from its parking places under an open portico at the funeral home.

The safe, about five feet high was taken from the office of the motor company building. An attempt had been made to open the safe in the repair shop since part of the combination was found lying on the floor, police said.

Entrance to the building was made by breaking out a window in the rear of the building. The rear doors of the building were then opened and the ambulance backed into a car stall near a door leading from the repair shop into the office. A chain hoist was used in lifting the heavy safe into the ambulance. A glass also was broken in the office door by which the thieves could reach in and unlock the door.

Hold Tack Theft Suspect

County sheriff force members reported on Tuesday that they were holding a man in the county jail for investigation in connection with the theft of some saddle horse equipment and some tools last Sunday from the Frank Souders' Saddle Club barn at 104 East Second

Most of the equipment, including girths, bits and spurs and the tools have been recovered, the sheriff's office reported. Some of the stolen articles were found where they had been hidden and a pair of spurs and a bit were found in a local pawn shop.

Regional Defense Formula Approved

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22—(AP) The United Nations conference pushed forward Tuesday night a plan to use regional defense agreements against aggression. The decision came at a time when Arab states talked of applying their own defense pact now in a blood-letting dispute with France on the other side of the world.

A conference sub-committee approved a formula, accepted by the big-five powers and most of the Latin American states, which would let regional defense systems operate against an aggressor until the security council of a new world organization takes adequate measures.

The formula emphasized that members of regional groups, like the Pan-American and Pan-Arab systems, should "make every effort to achieve peaceful settlement of local disputes."

Missing Official Drew Balance of $3,500 From Bank After Making December Check Off and Soon After Left City. Loss Not Discovered for Some Days After Mitchem Had Departed.

Mark Mitchem, better known as "Jack", and $4,000 belonging to the union of the Bartlesville Zinc company's employees, of which Mitchem was financial secretary and treasurer, are missing.

"Jack" has been missing sinc[illegible]e-cember 27, but the official [illegible] union were not aware of [illegible]ct that the $4,000 was [illegible] until the first of this week[illegible]itchem left Bartlesville, [illegible] 27, he sated that he [illegible]ing to Rich Hill, Mo., to [illegible]s mother.

Historical Society X

Acording to Jo[illegible] H. Hendricks, financial secretary and treasurer of the Natinal Zinc company's union Mitchem did not visit his mother in Missouri and no information has been obtained as to his whereabouts.

At the regular monthly "check-off" December 20, Mitchem is alleged to have got away with approximately $500. The same day he went to the Security National bank in Dewey and asked for the union's funds in currency of $1000 bills, saying that he wanted to deposit the money in a Bartlesville bank.

The Dewey bank told Mitchem that they would have the currency on the following day, December 21. The next day Mitchem obtained the $3,500 in currency, but he did not leave the city until December 27. No money was deposited in the Bartlesville banks, the union officials say.

Mitchem was employed as a fireman at the smelters. Robert McCallen, has been appointed to fill the position made vacant by the disappearance of Mitchem.

According to reports reaching John H. Hendricks, the departed secretary was a nervous wreck, and not in the best physical condition. A local physician had also diagnosed Mitchem's case as that of a physical and nervous wreck. Mitchem was under a $1,000 bond.

SMELTER WORKERS HOT ON THE TRAIL OF MITCHEM

The Smelter workers are after "Jack" Mitchem, financial secretary and treasurer of Local 120, Bartlesville Smelter Men's union, who is said to have eloped with nearly $4,0000 in cash belonging to the workmen.

A complaint charging embezzlement was sworn out Friday in Justice J. E. Hickey's court. A. J. Coffelt, new president of the union, who took the helm of the Smelter Workers' union January 1, swore out the complaint. Witnesses to be subpoened for hearing are A. J. Coffelt, Robert McClellan, John Hendricks, all smelter workers and S. E. C. H. Kayler of the Security National bank at Dewey.

Mitchem obtained $385, instead of $500 later reports show, at the regular December "check off," according to union members. After the check off, December 20, Mitchem it is said, went to the bank of Dewey, where his union had been doing business, and asked for $3,500 in bills to place in a Bartlesville bank, so he stated. The cashier told him to come back the next day. Mitchem went back to Dewey December 21 and received the $3,500 in bills, according to the report given out, but so far as is known no deposits were ever made by the former union treasurer in any Bartlesville bank.

Jack left the city December 27, saying that he was going to Rich Hill, Mo., to visit his mother.

No word has been heard of him since, and according to reports he did not visit his mother in Missouri.

Mitchem is Bound Over

Jack Mitchem, former secretary of the smelter worker's union, appeared before Justice J. E. Hickey, yesterday morning on a charge of embezzlement. He was bound over to the district court for trial, the bond being set at $3,000. Mitchem failed to make bond and will remain in the county jail.

Mitchem disappeared from Bartlesville last Christmas and was found in Long Beach, Calif., last month.

Revised United States Standard Certificate of Death

[Approved by U. S. Census and American Public Health Association]

Statement of occupation.—Precise statement of occupation is very important, so that the relative healthfulness of various pursuits can be known. The question applies to each and every person, irrespective of age. For many occupations a single word or term on the first line will be sufficient, e. g., Farmer or Planter, Physician, Compositor, Architect, Locomotive engineer, Civil engineer, Stationary fireman, etc. But in many cases, especially in industrial employments, it is necessary to know (a) the kind of work and also (b) the nature of the business or industry, and therefore an additional line is provided for the latter statement; it should be used only when needed. As examples: (a) Spinner, (b) Cotton mill; (a) Salesman, (b) Grocery; (a) Foreman, (b) Automobile factory. The material worked on may form part of the second statement. Never return "Laborer," "Foreman," "Manager," "Dealer," etc., without more precise specification, as Day laborer, Farm laborer, Laborer—Coal mine, etc. Women at home, who are engaged in the duties of the household only (not paid Housekeepers who receive a definite salary), may be entered as Housewife, Housework, or At home, and children, not gainfully employed, as At school or At home. Care should be taken to report specifically the occupations of persons engaged in domestic service for wages, as Servant, Cook, Housemaid, etc. If the occupation has been changed or given up on account of the DISEASE CAUSING DEATH, state occupation at beginning of illness. If retired from business, that fact may be indicated thus: Farmer (retired, 6 yrs.). For persons who have no occupation whatever, write None.

Statement of cause of death.—Name, first, the DISEASE CAUSING DEATH (the primary affection with respect to time and causation), using always the same accepted term for the same disease. Examples: Cerebrospinal fever (the only definite synonym is "Epidemic cerebrospinal meningitis"); Diphtheria (avoid use of "Croup"); Typhoid fever (never report "Typhoid pneumonia"); Lobar pneumonia; Bronchopneumonia ("Pneumonia," unqualified, is indefinite); Tuberculosis of lungs, meninges, peritonaeum, etc., Carcinoma, Sarcoma, etc., of .... (name origin; "Cancer" is less definite; avoid use of "Tumor" for malignant neoplasms); Measles; Whooping cough; Chronic valvular heart disease; Chronic interstitial nephritis, etc. The contributory (secondary or intercurrent) affection need not be stated unless important. Example: Measles (disease causing death), 29 ds.; Bronchopneumonia (secondary), 10 ds. Never report mere symptoms or terminal conditions, such as "Asthenia," "Anaemia" (merely symptomatic), "Atrophy," "Collapse," "Coma," "Convulsions," "Debility" ("Congenital," "Senile," etc.), "Dropsy," "Exhaustion," "Heart failure," "Haemorrhage," "Inanition," "Marasmus," "Old age," "Shock," "Uraemia," "Weakness," etc., when a definite disease can be ascertained as the cause. Always qualify all diseases resulting from childbirth or miscarriage, as "PUERPERAL septichaemia," "PUERPERAL peritonitis," etc. State cause for which surgical operation was undertaken. For VIOLENT DEATHS state MEANS OF INJURY and qualify as ACCIDENTAL, SUICIDAL, or HOMICIDAL, or as probably such, if impossible to determine definitely. Examples: Accidental drowning; Struck by railway train—accident; Revolver wound of head—homicide; Poisoned by carbolic acid—probably suicide. The nature of the injury, as fracture of skull, and consequences (e. g., sepsis, tetanus) may be stated under the head of "Contributory." (Recommendations on statement of cause of death approved by Committee on Nomenclature of the American Medical Association.)

Subject: Re: Viola Yehle Collins

Hi Tabatha,

You posted a query on my Findagrave site about Viola Yehle Collins and believe you mentioned that she was your grandmother. I have a great deal of info about the family. I will only give you a brief of her, as follows:

William Harrison Mitchem married Ella Ann "Elsie" Conner (Elsie had another marriage James Fitch) (William served in the Civil War from Ohio / died in KS)

Leona Gertrude "Gertie" Mitchem married Phillip E. Yehle (Leona "Aunt Gertie" had another marriage to John Phipps)
Children of Leona and Phillip:
Viola Ellen Yehle / born 1901 / died 1975
Johnnie Lee Yehle / born 1903 / died 1961
Infant son Yehle / born and died 1908 in Bartlesville, Oklahoma / buried White Rose Cemetery / Bartlesville
Infant son Yehle / born 15 Oct 1913 / died 18 Oct 1913 / Rich Hill, Bates Co. MO / buried Greenlawn Cemetery / Bates Co. Missouri

Viola Ellen Yehle married Silas George Washington Collins on 5 Sep 1918 in Goodland, Sherman Co. Kansas

The children I have listed for Viola and Silas:
Harold James born 1919 - born Goodland Kansas / married Lavona Dixon
Leona Geneva born 1921 - born Sharon Springs Kansas / married Virgil Weatherly and Mr. Andrus
Phillip Dale born 1924 - Rocky Ford Colorado / married Opal Utton
Dorothy Mae born 1926 - Cherew Colorado / married David Beers / not sure of his name
David Leroy born 1928 - Hutchinson Kansas / no marriage info
Silas, Jr. born 1930 - Dodge City, Kansas
Violet Vernita born 1932 - Hutchinson Kansas / Loretta Pearson
Floyd Dewayne born 1934 - Hutchinson Kansas / he died as a baby
Maxine Darling born 1935 - Hutchinson, Kansas / married Doyne Coy
Arthur Raymond born 1943 - Eugene, Oregon / married Mildred Walters

Leona Gertrude Mitchem Yehle was a sister to my grandfather, Orrin Ometa Mitchem. My Mom spoke often of her "Aunt Gertie" and "Uncle Phillip" since they all lived in Bartlesville Oklahoma at the same time. I also, have another Yehle connection. Marcus Leroy Trotwood Mitchem married May Lillie Yehle. So, a double connection. as Leona Gertrude Mitchem and Marcus Leroy Trotwood Mitchem were brother and sister and Phillip Yehle and May Lillie Yehle were brother and sister. Phillip and May Lillie were the children of Phillip and Sarah Goodwin Yehle.

Will be happy to share anything you want to know about the family. Some of the info came from Darlene Mrvich who lived in Springfield Oregon at one time.
Would like to know your exact connection to the family...........who was your grandmother you mentioned ??
